

Free seminar for Wealden Business

Wealden Business Group is extending an invitation to the local business community to join them as their guests for an exclusive seminar at The Little Silver Country Hotel, Tenterden on Wednesday, 21 January.

Delivered by top business coach Andrew Priestley, the two-hour seminar will focus on key strategies for small and medium enterprises (SMEs) to help them grow their businesses and increase revenues and profit.

While places at the seminar are free, reservations are limited, so local business owners who would like to attend should
